

of their chiefest treasure, their joy and their hope.

And many other hearts will be pained—his old schoolmates and the friends and companions of his youth, his High school classmates, all of whom, knowing him well, will miss him the more that he is gone forever.

The funeral was Thursday. Forty-one members of E. Y. Griggs' Temple No. 13, K. P. C., marched from the hall in Kneuss's block to the residence in South Ottawa. The Peru and Ottawa bands accompanied them. The Ottawa band boys carried their horns, which were appropriately draped. Prof. J. S. Stokes carried the horn used by deceased and the helmet worn as a member of the circle was placed on the coffin. Rev. W. F. Day and Dr. Fredericks conducted the services at the house and a choir of six voices sang several hymns, under the leadership of Prof. C. W. Weeks.

The floral offerings were beautiful and numerous. A pillow with the motto "Our Son," made with violets, was presented by the bereaved parents.

Other offerings were as follows: Broken wheel, from young people of South Ottawa; mortar, from druggists of the city; anchor, rose and cross, from High School Alumni association; basket pillow, class of '86; circle and triangle (emblem of the order), from the K. P. circle.

The funeral procession left the house at 3 o'clock and the body was buried in the South Ottawa burying ground. Dr. Hand, G. C. Ridings, Lorrette, Jones, Feesler and Johnson, of the Morris circle, attended the funeral.

COURT NEWS.

Happenings in the Several Courts.—Notes About the Court House.

A petition for a writ of habeas corpus was filed in the circuit clerk's office late Wednesday afternoon. Gregory O'Connell, of Rockford, is the complainant and Catherine Hansman, wife of Joe Hansman, of the Windsor Hotel, the defendant. The petition states that defendant has in her possession Jennie V. O'Connell, a child 5 years old, and it is alleged has refused to give the child to its father, this complainant. O'Connell is a brother of Mrs. Hansman. In October, 1887, Mrs. O'Connell died and Mrs. Hansman took the child and has since cared for it.

Mrs. Hansman will fight the case on the ground she has cared for the child nearly three years and should be allowed to keep it. O'Connell re-married recently and wants his child returned. He says he is now able to care for the little girl. McDougall & Chapman represent plaintiff and M. T. Moloney is attorney for defendant.

The case of Williams v. Fielding was heard Wednesday morning and taken under advisement. Williams is a Streator lumber merchant and Fielding is owner of the Spring Valley Opera House. Sol. Egbert, of Streator, built the structure and Williams furnished the lumber. Egbert gave Williams an order for $600 on Fielding in payment for the lumber which W. claimed was accepted verbally but not in writing. Besides the questions of the fact of an acceptance there was a legal question as to whether or not the order presented was a valid and negotiable bill of exchange. Reeves represented the plaintiff and O'Connor the defendant.

The case of Ostendorf v. Kopf et al. was dismissed without prejudice by Judge Blanchard Thursday. Joseph Kopf and John Schroeder were proprietors of a meat market at Streator and sold same, with stock, to Henry Ostendorf, with the understanding that the enterprise would pay big money. Ostendorf didn't make a fortune, and in fact was barely able to eke out a living. He brought suit to have the contract set aside and the money advanced by him returned on condition he give up a claim to the premises. McDougall & Chapman and Shay represented the plaintiff and A. P. Wright the defendants.

The case of Strawn v. Dingler et al., was tried before Judge Blanchard in Probate Court room Tuesday afternoon. The suit is brought by Lester H. Strawn, surviving partner of the law firm of Bull, Strawn & Ruger to recover $700 as attorneys' fees for professional services. The defendant's are all Germans and live in or near Spring Valley. They are as follows: Christian Dingler, John P. Tilt, John Weber, Michael Guenther, Chas. H. Wixom, Nicholas Breas, Felix Nuffel, Irwin Borger, Smith Miller, John Debes, Samuel Wilson, George Weisenberger, Mary Wolfer and Mary Pogrzeba.

The firm brought suit against the city of Spring Valley on behalf of these defendants to have the boundary lines of the city changed. It is claimed they were to receive $700 but as yet it has not been produced, hence the suit.

Brewer & Strawn represent the plaintiff and O'Connor and Greenwood the defendants. Judge Blanchard has the case under advisement.

The Marseilles base ball club commenced a suit Tuesday against J. T. Howland and asked for an injunction preventing him from destroying the ball park at Marseilles. The club leased the grounds in 1889 for five years, and erected a fence and amphitheatre. It is alleged Howland has destroyed the fence and proposes to tear down the amphitheatre. Carey & Trainor represent plaintiff.

Judge Blanchard gave a decision in two of the delinquent tax cases Tuesday. In the case of the People v. The Ottawa Gas Light and Coke company the demurrer to nar. was overruled and a judgment was given the plaintiff for $2,597.09. An appeal was allowed to the Supreme Court. Brewer & Strawn represent defendant and County Attorney Moloney is for the People.

A judgment for $2,037.11 was also rendered against the Ottawa Hydraulic company. L. Leland, counsel for defendant, was allowed an appeal to the Supreme Court.

Last November an effort was made to have these suits dismissed on the ground that the county attorney had no authority to commence a suit for delinquent taxes. The motion was overruled by Judge Blanchard in a lengthy opinion.

A suit to recover $800 damages was commenced Monday by L. Morrissey, for use of David Baker v. Ellis Briggs et al. Q. Chabuck and McDougall & Chapman are solicitors for complainant.

Wm. Stormout was given a judgment for $721.80 against James Gentlemen and John W. Teetzel on a note for $700, given Dec. 7, 1889, payable in ninety days. W. H. Stead is attorney for plaintiff. The defendants are the proprietors of the Globe Well Works in this city.

Ellen Riley has commenced suit to have real estate in Township 34, Range 2, sold and the proceeds divided between the heirs of James Riley, who died in 1874. Lizzie Byrnes and the others claiming any interest in the estate are made defendants. There are about a dozen heirs scattered all over the country from Ireland to Southern Illinois. M. T. Moloney is solicitor for complainant.

Samuel Richardson has started a suit against John Hoffman to recover $500 damages. W. L. Seely is solicitor for complainant.

A judgment was given plaintiff for $28.75 in the case of Griffin v. Conklin. The case of Spalding v. Beardon was dismissed at plaintiff's costs.

County Court.

Last Tuesday a jury in the Probate Court found George W. Corkins to be a distracted person and decided he was unable to transact business. The court was instructed to appoint a conservator. The petition was filed by Henry B. Corkins, a brother of defendant. Lucien B. Crooker was appointed conservator. Yesterday he assumed the duties of the trust by giving a bond in the sum of $80,000, with Casper Fisher, John Cummings and George Wirick as sureties.

Mr. Corkins resides at Mendota and has always been considered of sound mind. He is 75 years old and has a wife, but no children. He has been in business many years, and has been quite successful. His estate is valued at $40,000.

Judge Snyder gave plaintiff in the case of Sweetland v. Culvera judgment against defendant for $524.33.

Admitted to Probate.

The last will and testament of Herman W. Strobel has been admitted to probate, and Al. F. Schoch was appointed administrator. C. J. Metzger and Stephen Arnold are security on a $2,000 bond.

Ellen McElroy was appointed administratrix of the estate of James McElroy. A $3,000 bond was furnished, with approved security.

James S. Underhill, a well known merchant of Tonica, died March 24th, leaving an estate valued at $3,000. No will could be found, and yesterday Samuel Underhill was appointed administrator of the estate. The appraisers are Wm. Brokaw, Wm. Haskins and John King.

Mary Ann Morsch, executrix of the last will and testament of Peter Morsch, has been ordered to pay legacies to Adeline Murphy and Valentine Dolder.

The hearing on the petition to have the last will of Mary O'Rourke admitted to probate is set for Monday, May 5.

Letters testamentary have been issued to Anna Katherine Althouse, who was recently appointed administratrix of the estate of Peter Althouse. John Althouse, John Nagel and M. T. Moloney are security on a $6,000 bond. Althouse died in 1887 and the will, which was made in 1876, was not found until a few days ago.

An additional bond of $3,000 was filed in the Fred W. Weisheit estate. The report of accounts in the August Voigt's estate was filed and approved.

Anahil Dillie has been appointed administratrix of the estate of Joseph Dillie, deceased. Henry Hoemer and Jacob Blitsch are security on a $3,600 bond.
